The empires of experience, whose legends tend to linger on within us, are reflected now as each of us shall strive to reap the knowledge that is held inside the Past—sorting good from bad,
 right and wrong,
 attempting, each by inner self-true means,
 to reach his own truth of existence—to find a purpose for his being, to clear the path ahead, using only what's been left behind.

empires fall
and are blown away—while legends linger on within us.

Patterns are beginning to take shape.
 Life goes quickly backwards and slowly ahead.
 Reflections are precious.
 Let them escape.

Reflecting Values and Ideas

SENIORS 1970

In February 1965, Jerry and Renny Russell two young brothers, collaborated on a book On the Loose, which is a photographic essay that glorifies the eloquence of nature's wilderness; the world that has not been spoiled by human contact.

There is a passage in the book that reads: "You can go through life fudging and evading, indulging and slacking, never really hungry, not frightened, nor passionately stirred; your highest moment a mere sentimental orgasm, and your first real contact with primary and elemental necessities the sweat of your deathbed."

I hope we've prepared you for more than this during our three years at Leland. We hope that you've been provided with strength, determination, improvisation and tolerance so that you will know the joy of exhaustion, the taste of sweat, and most important the thrill of knowing that now you can rely on yourself to make the kinds of decisions necessary to live, rather than just pass through life.

J. Mahaffey

The vice principals, Mrs. Rudd, Mr. Ridley, and Mr. Mahaffey, have helped us through the year with their friendly smiles, encouraging words, and genuine feeling of concern for the students. They are examples of the adult generation reflecting feeling for the young—understanding them and giving them the needed guidance in these formative, influential years.

Reflections

In retrospect we wish to render a special salute to our counselors who have devoted their time and energy in giving us guidance and encouragement. They are always willing and able to listen to our problems.

ACADEMICS

The student at Leland experiences endless learning opportunities. He can peer through a microscope examining the life that exists in a pond. He can learn the touch system on an adding machine. He can argue the merits of the democratic system. He can fall dramatically to the floor as a sword pierces his heart, only to rise and repeat his heroic act. He can learn a language through earphones. He can express his beliefs during small group discussions, which reach into probes in depth. He can comprehend the difficult principles of math. For gone is the security of the fifty minute class cycle; gone is the bell determining movement. The student at Leland is no longer one in a flock, he is an individual that can find himself. Things that were once so far out of reach are now only reflections of the past.

Whether it is baking cookies, setting a table, feeding a baby, planning a meal or learning to budget expenses, the home-making classes learn the right method under Mrs. Mellino and Mrs. Donaire.

In auto mechanics boys learn not only what makes a car tick but what to do when it stops ticking

Mr. Potts teaches students to develop a green thumb by working in Leland's greenhouse

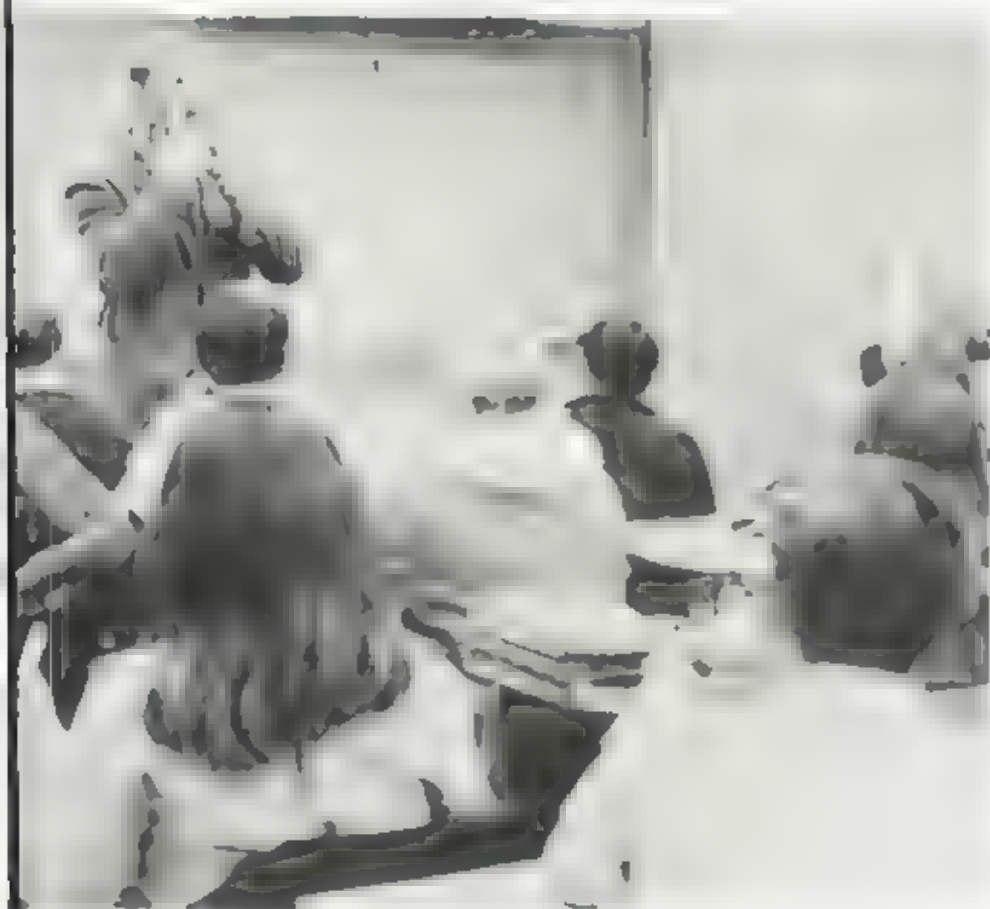

To give our Leland students a broad understanding of the world around them our Social Science Department offers a series of courses which are designed to make the students more informed and interested citizens.

The program consists of many courses ranging from American Government to World History. With the help of the Social Science Department the program is constantly growing and changing as is the world around us.

To give the students at Leland a wide scope in management and business education the department offers courses such as Record keeping and Bookkeeping. Leland offers a variety of courses intended to lengthen the knowledge of the students. One such course is psychology in which the students learn to explore each others minds. Increased emphasis in our technological society on mathematics has altered the curriculums and Leland is meeting the challenge by offering math analysis and calculus.

Art is an Expression of emotion. It may be inspired by a sense of beauty, by some inner experience, or by ideals and aspirations. Art is the product of superb craftsmanship combined with creative imagination. Both of these combined contribute to a person's enjoyment of art

The eagerness for a challenge, the spirit of the unknown, the thrill of all accomplishment, all of these are aspects of the Leland student's life

Reflections of Our Foreign Exchange Students

Dear Leland High School:

My stay with you is nearing its end now. When I return home to my country, I will take with me great memories of my visit to your country.

During the time I've been here, I've learned so much about your people so very different but yet so much the same as mine. Everyone has been so wonderful and friendly to me.

At first when I arrived I felt like a stranger in your country, and now I feel as though I am leaving my other home.

I would like to thank you all for your hospitality and warmth. I will always consider my stay here one of the greatest experiences of my life.

Dan Ruiz

The year that has just passed is one I will never forget

I enjoyed every day of my stay at Leland. I found the students very helpful and friendly. This experience I have had in a school with a very different kind of people from another part of this vast world could have ended in failure, but thanks to the helping hands of the students I was able to survive. I gained many new friends and fulfilled the very purpose of my being here. The stay proved to be very interesting to me. I met different teachers with different methods and ideas about teaching. I was able to share my problems with other students as well as listen to theirs

My experience at Leland has been very fulfilling. Thank you for everything

Isaura Pumarada

Lisa Detmann

Dear Leland High School

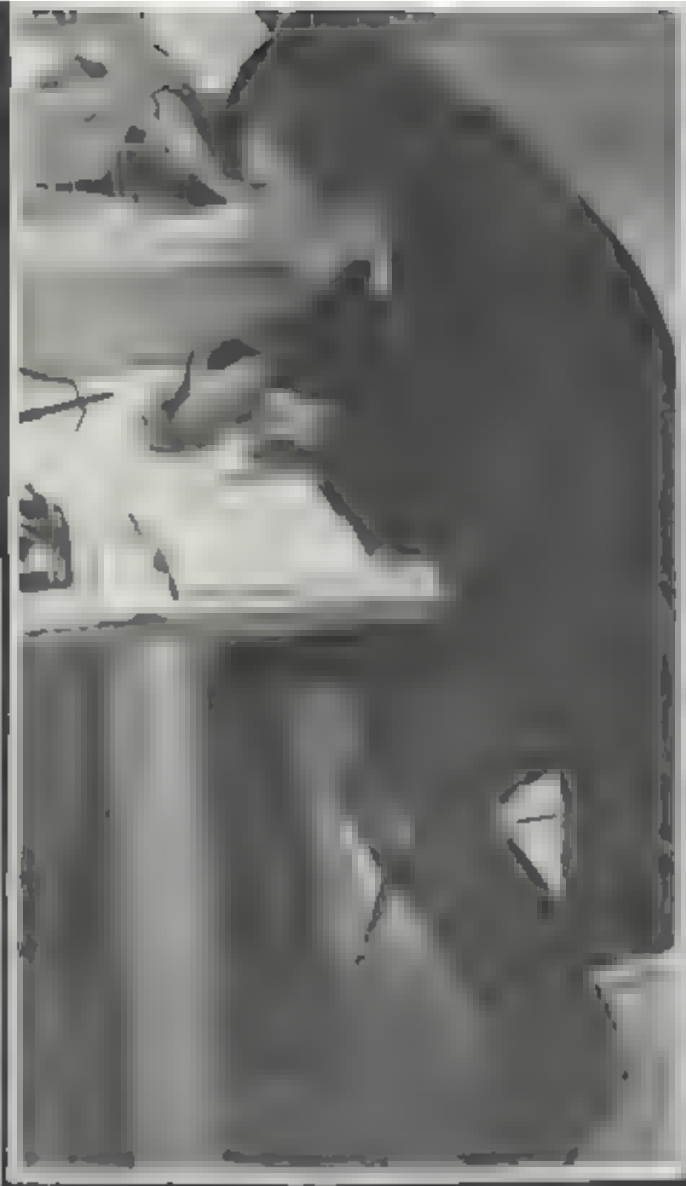

Now that I have been attending Leland for my senior year and am about to leave, I would like you to know how much I enjoyed it. Everyone here has been so nice to me and helped me whenever necessary. You simply can't imagine what an experience it has been to attend school in a foreign country, especially when there is such a difference

Rallies, football games, the rooter-bus, the snackbar, House of Representatives and even the counselors were entirely new to me. I am afraid I will miss all of these when I return to Germany this year

I would like you to know that I am happy to have gained new friends. Let me thank you once more for everything in a German word, "DANKESCHON!"

June 1970

Dear Leland High

Graduation is here! As we walk down the aisle, reflections of our past three years - laughter, sorrow, friends, teachers, games, dances - come back to us - and then we walk on!

Orientation 1966 and we met as a class. We were to be Leland's first class to be promoted from Sophomore to Junior to Senior. The rallies and games brought out a new spirit that we hadn't experienced in junior high. We began to feel a spirit that stayed with us throughout our three years at Leland

As Juniors, we returned to find a new and different year awaiting to challenge us. We found a new Sophomore class, and Seniors, and Junior History instead of Drivers Ed

As Seniors we returned to orientate yet another future generation of Leland students. Our Senior Year has been the best - our defeat in football over Pioneer at San Jose City, the Senior Carnival, Senior Ice Skating and the Senior Ball

Yes, graduation is here - and we have many memories and reflections of our three years at Leland. May those of you that continue at Leland find your experiences to be as meaningful and rewarding as we have

Reflecting Leland Chargers

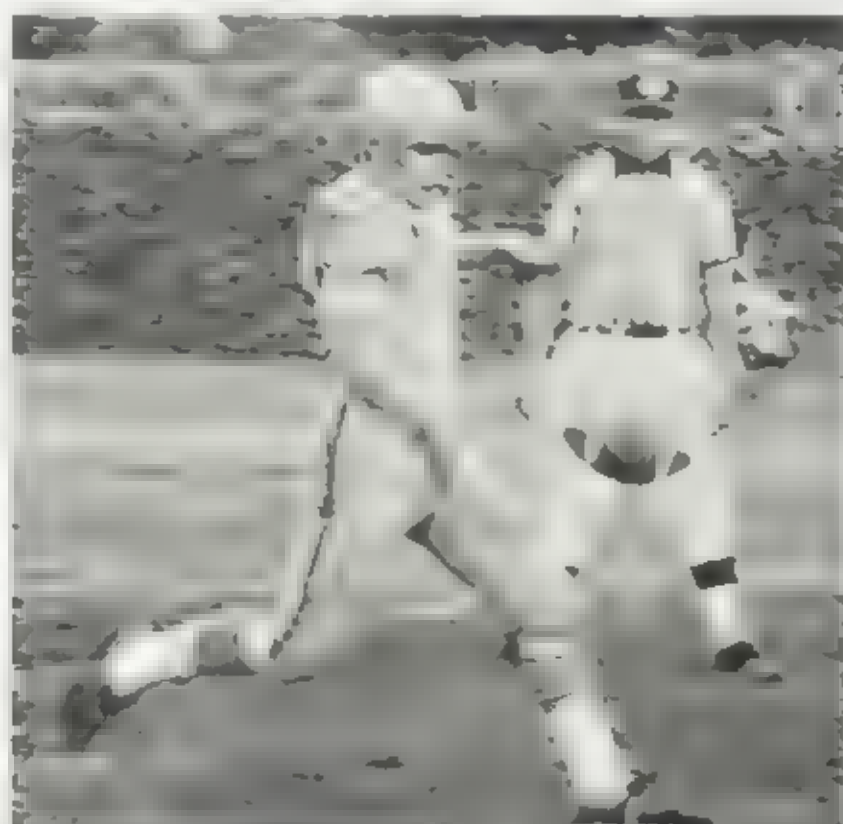

The most important judgement of a team in competitive sports is how many times that team can end up on the positive side of the final score. A team may accumulate many first downs or completed passes; however, these statistics do not equal the final amount of points on the scoreboard.

Everyone likes a winner, as the saying goes. But what about teams that try their best, but somehow, somehow, just can't seem to reach that elusive plateau of success?

Many hours of great exertion in practice, both mental and physical, are put into our football program. This effort is not only displayed by our football players, but by the coaching staff as well. The main goal is a Championship. This goal could not realize this year. Our players tried their best, and, most of all they realized what victory means, and the price that must be paid to obtain it. The price is playing while hurt, and never giving up, no matter what the score may be. To our 1969 football team, thanks for an exciting and rewarding fall season. They are champions in their own rights.

A determined team with a broken play

Dennis Heath runs another for the Chargers

I was very pleased with the team the last few games because I really think that they finally pulled themselves together, and played outstanding football.

This is probably a good time to give recognition to the boys who really did an outstanding job throughout the year. First, I would like to pay tribute to a boy we lost during the season, Steve Thompson who died of a football injury the third week of football. I think that we lost an outstanding citizen. A trophy has been set aside to be given to the outstanding sophomore football player each year. The award was won this year by Tom Menniti, who was also selected to the First Team All-League STAL. He was the outstanding player on the Sophomore team. The outstanding lineman was David Gotschal, the most versatile football player on the team. He played end, tackle and center.

The team captains were Mike Voss and Dennis Heath.

This year Leland was honored to have one of the finest cross-country teams in its history. The team may not have finished first in the STAL but as Coach Sullivan stated it is the fastest and most spirited team he has ever coached. The top runner this year was John Schneider, who, along with Mike Higgins, Dave Layton, Dan Rubin, and Rick Younge, led our varsity team to place in the STAL league finals.

At the close of the season as they rejoiced, the strain of "Happy Trails To You" could be heard echoing through Almaden Valley.

Varsity Water Polo

This year's Varsity Water Polo team showed great determination. Although the Varsity had only one returning starter out of seven positions, they still tied for first. Most of the starters were juniors, and the only returning starter, senior Gregg Menges, missed half of the season with a broken eardrum—so it was a good year for such a young team. It really was another great year!

Varsit

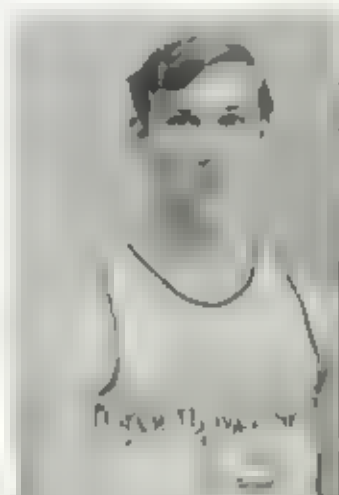

I feel that the 1969-70 basketball season could be Leland's best. The individuals that make up this years club are hard working, dedicated players who want to succeed. As a coach, I am proud to be associated with individuals who won't give up when the going gets tough. We are fortunate to have many fine young players off of Coach Brooks' great team of last year, to go along with some varsity letter winners from the 68-69 campaign. Youth will be an important factor in our season; as our season progresses so should our team. We feel that Leland should be a contender in the S.T.A.L. this season. I would like to thank the student body, the faculty, and especially the members of the spirit staff for their great support; you don't realize how important you are.

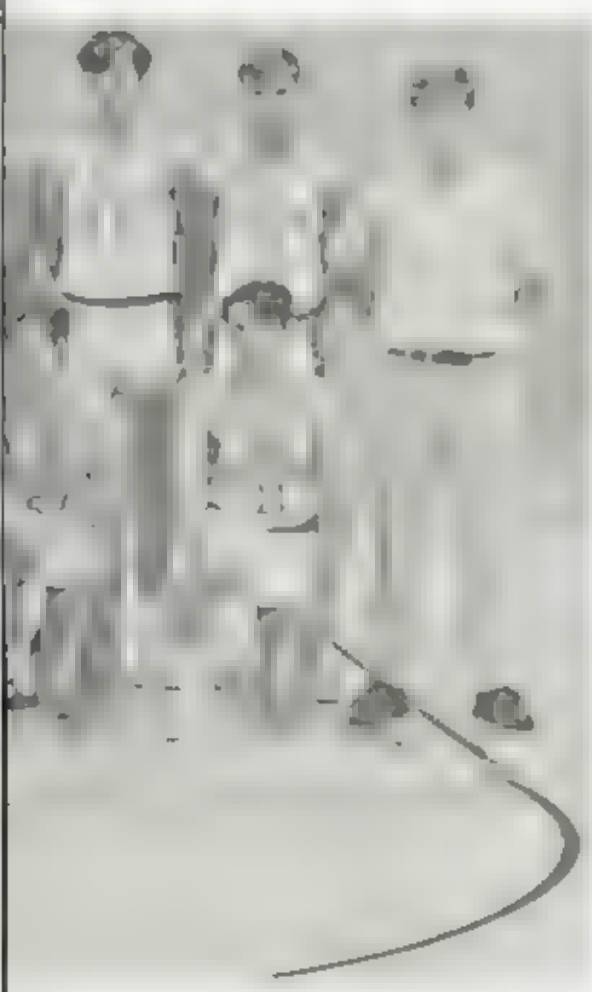

Coach Hawey

Basketball

Basketball

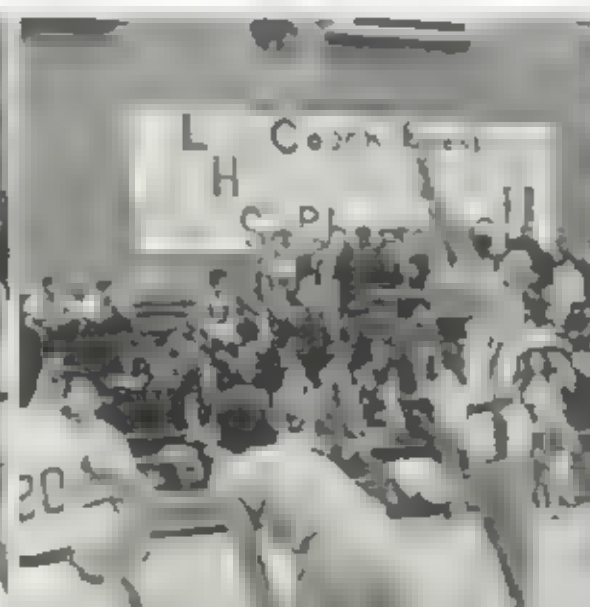

At the time of this writing, our league record stands at 2 wins, 3 losses, with 6 games remaining. The sophomores started the season strong, winning 2 of their first 3 games against Junior Varsity competition. At this point 6'7" Guy Leo was shifted to the Varsity squad. This left the tallest player at 6'2".

Lacking physical size, the sophomores have largely compensated through teamwork and a pressing defence. Highlights of the season thus far are the double overtime win against Oak Grove and a last second win over San Jose, when Don Siegel's shot went in with 4 remaining to win - 39-38.

Individually, the team is led by Steve Johnson and Don Siegel, each averaging 9 points per game, and Ken McMaster's 10 points per game and 78% free throw percentage.

The Little Big Guys

Leland's C basketball team won the league championship this year with a 5-1 record in league play. Going from last to first place in one year is quite an achievement. The team was paced by the hustle of Ken McMasters, shooting of Keith Reynolds, and ball-hawking of Brad Spears. Veterans like Dana Yarak and Paul Vitaen added morale and muscle to the Met-like finish of the team.

After losing its first 3 league games, the D basketball team won its last 3 games to tie for third place. The D team led by Tom Elliott and Mark Emerson, finished strong and indicated that they will help next year's C team.

Our 1970 golf team is the finest to ever represent Leland High School. Each member of the team has had two or three years of varsity experience and two league championships behind them. The team went on to win the championship again this year.

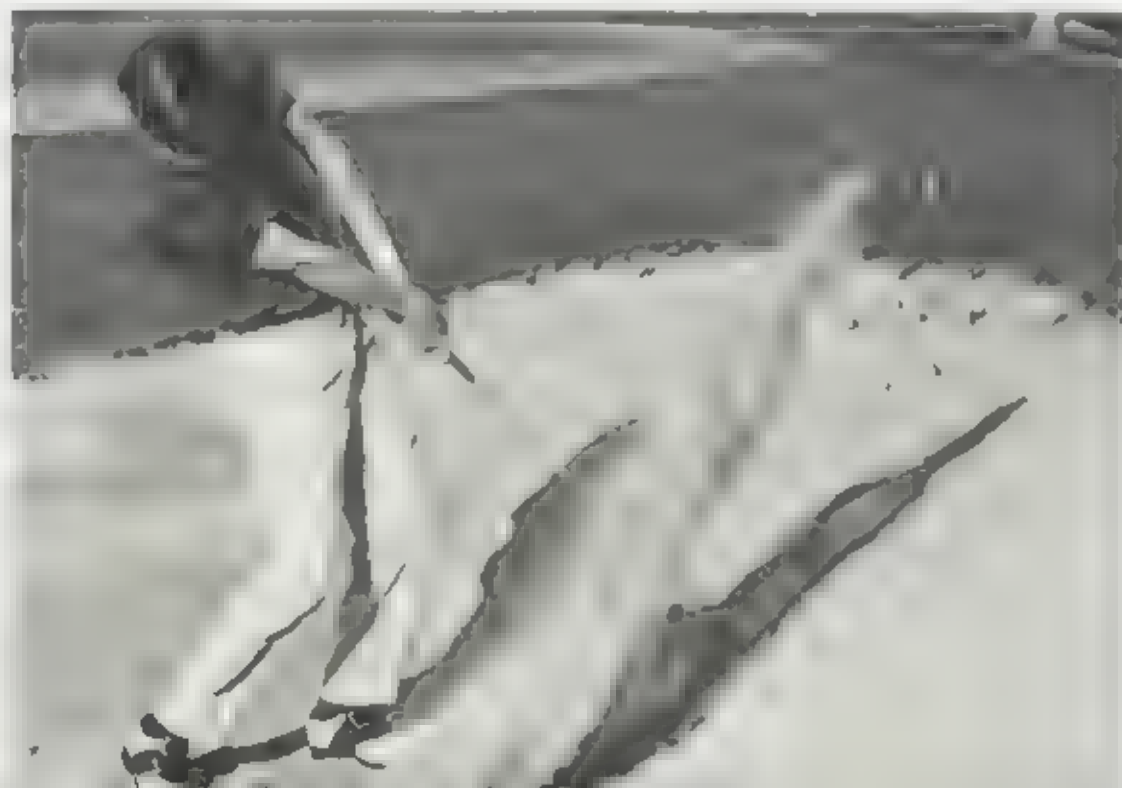

These players have always been a credit to Leland, as golfers and gentlemen. It has been a pleasure being their coach.

Winning two-thirds of their games in their first year of competition stamped this J.V. team as a very skillful, dedicated, tough team. Led by captain Bob Johnston, and backed by such outstanding players as Leif Johnson, Jeff Ault, Chet Metcalf, Dennis Elliott, Dave Hardy, Mark Harrison, Howard Helm, Jeff Osborn, Bill Dunkel, Tom Elliott, and goalie Bill Minkel made them a threat to every team they met. The ability to come from behind, as they did against Pioneer, and to defend strongly at their goal as did Fullbacks Rampone, Buzzell, Waller, and Willett demonstrated zeal, which should strengthen next year's varsity Leland's first-year team was an extremely pleasant surprise to all (except other coaches) because they demonstrated skills not usually associated with a beginning club. Soccer requires unusual skills not normally developed by American boys because in games we "think" with our hands rather than with our feet. However, Leland's athletes were quick to learn dribbling, tackling, kicking of many varieties, as well as the special techniques used in heading the ball. Outstanding members were Captain Dave Boswell, Center Forward Mark Smith, who contributed much with his great skills and playmaking ability, Wings Bob Wood and Ralph Lundberg, Inside Jim Hardin, Halfback Al Wagner, Chuck Wimpee, Kim Hancock and Dave (Manny) Samples, Fullbacks Joe Taormino and "Big T" Ted Walls; and outstanding Goalie Mark Robards. Depth on this team was also an important factor with such exemplary boosters as Rich Singer, Dan Terrell, Tom Davison, Ernie Mendoza, Tom Wilkus, Don Saia, Rich Fisher, Issy Pumarada, Rich Avidano and Bill Schisano. It is expected that next year will be a banner one because of the return of players Lundberg, Robards, Singer, Davison, Hancock, Wimpee, Wagner and Boswell, plus outstanding JV additions.

The Girls Athletic Association is composed of all girls enrolled in the Girls Sport class. The purpose of this organization is to provide interscholastic competition for the highly skilled Competively, Leland has gotten off to a successful start. The fall sports which include swimming and tennis found us placing second in swimming to Santa Clara and the tennis team was first in division. The "A" basketball team ended their season undefeated and the "B" team ended up in second place. Presently the girls are starting their volleyball and gymnastics seasons and in the last quarter they will be in badminton and softball. Later this spring Leland will host the League Gymnastics Finals and a Saturday clinic on Karate and Self-Defense. G.A.A. has also planned a ski trip to Bear Valley and a camping trip to Mt. Madonna. It is hoped that the girls in the organization feel that this year has been fun and successful and has met the objectives stated above

Spirit '70

SPIRIT is not merely yelling at rallies or at games. It is getting involved and having fun. And we did have fun this year. I loved working with Miss Beard and the spirit staff. They are great girls. Serving as Leland's Spirit Commissioner was an experience and pleasure that I won't forget.

Reflections of

triviality, pass and nostalgic refrain and chalk boards made of thin illusions through which graffiti passes trying to forget you

manila envelope personal data (4 copies each) box lunch lecture and hidden yearning for learning

Reflections of

Mr. Shakespeare standing at your podium exchanging glances with the rich kid athlete hero in the front row—

Steinbeck looks in and wonders where we're at while frustration's lure passes the hat

...than there I saw reflections of discovery, love and Saturday's isolation neglect and city's dissonance and open doors and future promise and many faces

And tomorrow's reflection

In the spring of 1969, the student-body of Leland obviously felt that "changes" in student government were needed badly. My election to the office of Student-body President was the final outcome of this feeling. I felt then, that besides the mediocre tasks and responsibilities of being A.S.B. President, my ultimate accomplishment would be to create an attitude and a means for constant change. The attitude was definitely and is still changing towards student government. While the first radical candidates were opposed by forces boasting a conservative platform, the candidates for the semester of '70 became either of the established radical faction or a 'progressive' party candidate. I speculate that it will be a long, long time before a conservative candidate is elected or even runs for an A.S.B. office at Leland. The means for change are still developing and I sincerely hope these means never stop developing. The means which prevail for change in any semester will only be a direct result of the student-body's attitudes and, or needs for this change.

Thank you
Jeb Beck

SPRING—ASB GOVERNMENT

At Leland in the spring semester, in spite of spring and the fever it brings, Leland students continued the trend of getting together. They not only got together, but they stayed together, worked together and succeeded together, making Leland a place in which we can all take pride.

A sincere thanks to all those who contributed to this effort either by serving on a committee or acting as a commissioner or justice. It was through you, as the branches of the house, that enabled so much work to be accomplished in so short a time.

Hopefully the atmosphere of unity created through the student union, the welcome committee, the tutor system, the curriculum committee will become tradition to extend this atmosphere to classes to come.

Thank you,
Bob Phiztenmeir

As some of you avid FREE AT LAST readers may realize, the task of putting out a weekly newspaper of such quality as ours is not a job for mere amateurs. We of the staff of FREE AT LAST have worked long and hard so that we may each week present you with a new, fascinating, witty and generally brilliant piece of journalistic art. I would like to thank the staff for the great job they did in getting out the newspaper, and I would especially like to congratulate myself on being such a fine editor.

WITTY, IMAGINATIVE, INGENIOUS, AND ORIGINAL

Staff

To say that I'm surprised we made it through this year would be one of the understatements of the century. While many people feel the yearbook class is just fun and games, it has come to mean much more to us; for example, headaches, fights, tears, and ulcers

We have worked under extremely rough conditions this year because we have done all of our work during our free time, and it just so happens we had no free time together! But with the staff I had this year nothing was impossible. They all worked above and beyond the call of duty to make this year's yearbook the best Leland has ever had. To next years yearbook class, Good Luck and God Bless!

That man is a success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who leaves the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had
